We will finalize details re: Romantic and Impressionistic
Piano Competition which will be held October 24 at Steinway Galleries.

- One important announcement: The Winners Recital will be earlier this year – beginning promptly at 1:00 October 25 at Steinway Galleries. We have to be finished by 3:00 this year.

84 students are registered, with 23 teachers participating. We have two judges this year. Judge B has levels One-Four and Judge A will judge levels Five-Six.

I have been working hard organizing the event; you will receive your students' schedule shortly.

- Master Class Jan. 8, 2016 with Robert Henry. We are co-hosting this event with the Cobb Music Teachers chapter. If you are interested in having your student perform, please contact Nancy Elton. The students will play that Friday during school hours. Location is Piano Distributors.
- Recital Announcement: Nancy Elton will be playing a solo recital on the Community Concert Series at Steinway Galleries in Alpharetta Sunday Nov. 15 at 3:00. Program includes Debussy Estampes, Liszt Harmonies du soir, and Chopin's Sonata in B minor. Everyone is invited!

We should be very proud of all our AMT performing artists, and support their performances. With several members teaching and performing at local area colleges and universities, we have many opportunities to hear our members play.

- Raisa returns to Atlanta to present the 2nd Baroque Keyboard Workshop Jan 29-30 2016 at the Peachtree Christian Church Deadline to submit applications is Jan. 10 2016. See www.atlema.org (page Baroque Keyboard Workshop Registration).

See you Friday
